

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

Our website is directed to a general audience. We do not knowingly solicit or collect information from children on our site. Visitors may elect to provide us with personal information via e-mail or online registration forms. This information is used internally, as appropriate, to handle the sender's request. It is not disseminated or sold to other organizations. Some areas of our website may use a "cookie" temporarily stored in the visitor's computer memory (RAM) to allow the web server to log the pages you pursue within the site and to know if you have visited the site before. Visitors to this bank website remain anonymous. We do not collect identifying information about visitors to our site. We may use standard software to collect non-identifying information about our visitors, such as:

- Date and time our site was accessed
- IP address (A numeric address given to servers connected to the Internet)
- Web browser used
- City, state, and country

The Bank uses this information to create summary statistics and to determine the level of interest in information available on our site.

Other Privacy Information

Access to our Website:

Our website does not require you to disclose any personally identifying information. If, however, you choose to contact us via e-mail, please keep in mind that your e-mail address and any other information your e-mail shows about you , such as your name or organization, will be revealed to us in the e-mail. We pledge, however, that when you communicate with us via e-mail, we will use your e-mail information only for specific purpose of responding to your comments or questions. Your e-mail address will not be sold, nor will it be shared with others outside the bank unless we are compelled to do so by law. Some areas of our website may use a "cookie" temporarily stored in the visitor's computer memory (RAM) to allow the web server to log the pages you use within the site and to know if you have visited the site before.

Links:

Occasionally, we will link to other Internet sites as a convenience to you, our customer. Walcott Trust and Savings Bank will only link sites that uphold our corporate standards. Our website is directed to a general audience. We do not knowingly solicit or collect information from children on our website. However, we are not responsible for the content of those sites, nor their policies for the collection of customer information.

Customer Recourse:

If you believe that we have incorrect information regarding yourself or any one of your accounts, please contact us immediately by calling us at (563)-284-6202 or go to www.walcottbank.com.